

Ramgopal Subramani, COO

Ram has more than 25 years of experience in Software Product Development varying from start-ups, mid-size to large software houses like Microsoft. Having in-depth understanding of business, technology and processes that make a software product engineering organization to not only succeed, but sustain the momentum through constant innovation.

At Perfios, he manages the entire product roadmap, working closely with Engineering Team in creating world class products and engaging with enterprise clients in solution delivery.

Core software products worked include Database Servers, Middleware Server, Integration Products, Security Products, Tools and Utilities for Server Class Products.

He has also built Enterprise Application Packages for Financial Services, Retail and Real Estate software companies. I have also built SaaS solution for the Textile SMB, Certification Portal and Internet Media Platform.

Has successfully developed and led Engineering Teams to deliver 40 + releases of various products, including well known products such as Microsoft SQL Server 2005, BizTalk Server, Viador Enterprise Information Portal, Tradebeam, Asian CERC Financial Securities, Bio Password and so on.

His specialties include Internet Applications, Server Class Products, Integration middleware, Cloud computing.