

FINANCIAL SERVICES AGENCY
THE GOVERNMENT OF JAPAN

Mr. Motonobu MATSUO

Deputy Director-General,
Credit & Insurance system, June 2016-
& Secretary General,
Certified Public Accountants and Auditing Oversight Board, July 2017-

Mr. Motonobu Matsuo is Deputy Director-General (Credit & Insurance system) and Secretary General (Certified Public Accountants and Auditing Oversight Board) of the Financial Services Agency, the Government of Japan (JFSA). He is mainly responsible for legal systems for banking and insurance industries and Japanese FinTech policy.

Prior to joining JFSA in July 2014, Mr. Matsuo had his long career in the Ministry of Finance, Government of Japan. He served as Budget Examiner for Local Government Finance and was responsible for budgeting for local government. He also served as Director for Foreign Exchange Markets Division and was responsible for Japanese foreign exchange policy measures and managing foreign reserves.

Mr. Matsuo also had a role of Counselor, Cabinet Legislation Bureau from 2002 to 2008, and Deputy Personal Secretary to the Prime Minister from 1994 to 1995.

Mr. Matsuo holds B.A. in law from the University of Tokyo and L.L.M. from Harvard Law School.